Third Amended and Restated Stockholders Agreement

Crestovo, together with certain other stockholders of the Company, have entered into a Third Amended and Restated Stockholders Agreement that provides for registration rights with respect to the shares of Common Stock covered thereby. Upon the closing of the Company's initial public offering, shares of Common Stock covered thereby ("registrable securities") became entitled to certain rights with respect to registration of such shares under the Securities Act of 1933 ("Securities Act").

Demand Registration Rights: At any time beginning 180 days following March 18, 2021, the holders of at least 20% of the registrable securities then outstanding have the right to make up to two demands that the Company file a registration statement under the Securities Act subject to specified conditions and exceptions. Such request for registration must cover shares with an anticipated aggregate offering price to the public of at least $25 million.

Piggyback Registration Rights: If the Company registers any securities for public sale, the holders of its registrable securities then outstanding will each be entitled to notice of the registration and will have the right to include their shares in the registration statement, subject to specified exceptions. The underwriters of any underwritten offering will have the right to limit the number of shares having registration rights to be included in such registration statement, but not below 25% of the total amount of securities included in such registration.

Registration on Form S-3: If the Company is eligible to file a registration statement on Form S-3, the holders of at least 20% of the registrable securities then outstanding have the right to demand that the Company file registration statements on Form S-3, provided that the aggregate amount of securities to be sold under the registration statement is at least $5.0 million, net of underwriting discounts and commissions and specified expenses. The Company is not obligated to effect a demand for registration on Form S-3 by holders of its registrable securities more than two times during any 12-month period. The right to have such shares registered on Form S-3 is further subject to other specified conditions and limitations.

Expenses of Registration: The Company will pay all expenses relating to any demand, piggyback or Form S-3 registration, other than underwriting discounts and commissions, subject to specified conditions and limitations.

Indemnification: The registration rights also include customary provisions pursuant to which the Company has agreed to indemnify holders of registrable securities, among others, for certain liabilities in connection with public offerings of Common Stock, including liabilities under the Securities Act.

Termination of Registration Rights: The demand, piggyback and Form S-3 registration rights described above will terminate on the earliest to occur of (1) the closing of a deemed liquidation event, as defined in the Company's certificate of incorporation, (2) the five-year anniversary of the closing of the Company's initial public offering and (3) with respect to each stockholder, at such time as Rule 144 under the Securities Act or another similar exemption is available for the sale of all of such holder's shares without limitation during a three-month period without registration.
